File 6526 & 6/121

To Accounting Dept.

FROM John Spratt

Transferred to Chattel Expense from account of Genji HIRABUCHI, File 6526, proceeds from Auction Vancouver 49, Vancouver 50 and Vancouver 51, owing to the fact that it was impossible to separate which goods belonged to Genji HIRABUCHI and Toshiro HIRA. Mr. HIRA has now abandoned all claim to any portion of the chattels and it has been decided to allow HIRABUCHI to have the proceeds from the sale of all the chattels.

Will you please transfer from Chattel Expense, 6/121, to account of Genji HIRABUCHI, File 6526, Reg. 62424.

MEMORANDUM

Re: Chetels

The personal property of the NAKA family was moved at one time to the Houma Temple storage at 601 East Cordova St.

Whilst Mrs. Naka refused to discuss her personal property, it is considered probable that she had many articles included with those of her interned husband.

Everything was moved as one lot on November 17th and the complete list is attached to Int-ense file No. 1209.

Re: Welfare Department.
NAKA, Ishi (Mrs. Tomijiro).

As requested in your letter of the 17th instant we would inform you that according to our file the above named party has neither a bank account, cash reserve, or property that we can report.

Tomijiro NAKA, her husband, Int. File #1209, has property at 8686 Osler Street from which no revenue is being derived at the present time. There are arrears of taxes amounting to $147.65. Our ledger shows, however, there is a balance of $293.63 standing to his credit as at this date.

Yours truly,

Mrs. Ishi NAKA,
Reg. No. 01081,
Building "E",
Tashme, B.C.

December 6th, 1945.

Dear Madam:-

We enclose to you herewith the following account sales of household effects belonging to you and your husband and to a Japanese by the name of NAKAJACHI. These were removed to our warehouse and sold. The lists enclosed are G. 181(50) two pages and G.181(51). The effects became mixed in the warehouse and during the sale on account of the similarity of the names, so that we were unable to distinguish to which one they belong. We forwarded these lists and a similar letter to your husband through the Commandant at Angler, Ontario, and the lists are just returned with the following comments:-

The Internee states that he is unable to identify any of the articles listed, as they are mostly household chattels, and that the only way to secure identification would be to forward the list to his wife, Mrs. Ishi NAKA, Building "E", Tashme, B.C."

We are now asking you, as we asked your husband, to put an "X" mark just in front of each item claimed by you, and return the marked lists to this office.

Your early attention will be appreciated.

Yours truly,

Dear Sirs:

I have receipt of your letter of December 6th and regret to find the list incomplete and other articles, furniture etc. not mentioned in the copy. Would appreciate very much as to what arrangements you have made regarding to the properties including store and house and all goods included in it. The following is the list which we left behind prior to our evacuation to Rosebery.

Very Sincerely Yours

Mrs. I. Naka

Mrs. Ishi NAKA,
Reg. No. 01081,
Building "E"
Tashme, B.C.

Dear Madam:-

We are in receipt of your letter of the 7th January last and have delayed reply, partly awaiting an answer from NAKAMACHI to whom we had written, and partly in an endeavour to clarify the situation here.

We are writing to NAKAMACHI again today, urging that he let us have a reply to our former letter.

You returned the lists that we forwarded to you duly marked, in fact you marked each item as belonging to you. You state that there were other chattels than those mentioned, and this is correct, as the articles in the above mentioned lists were in doubt. We are now enclosing to you Auction sheets as follows:-

No. 49	$185.45
No. 50	42.92
" 52	.56
" 53	.98
" 55	1.50

These chattels were identified and the proceeds of sales are credited to the account of your husband on our books. These lists with the former ones, may enable you to check your belongings more completely.

Regarding the real property of your husband, to which you referred, this we shall refer to the Department handling that matter, for such reply as may be decided.

We shall be obliged for your further comments in respect to the chattels involved.

Yours truly,

B.R. Lusenbury,

From: Frances May

Re: Chattels on above files

In his declaration of April 28, 1942, to the Custodian, Gunji NAKAMACHI, File 6526, reported effects left at 2584 Oxford St. These premises were occupied by Miss Hise KATO, File 12961, who also reported chattels left at that address. Mr. Gross's memo of March 25, 1944, on File 6526 states that all the contents at 2584 Oxford St. were moved to storage in the name of Gunji NAKAMACHI. Due to the similarity of names, these effects became mixed in the warehouse and during the sale with those of Mr. and Mrs. Tomojiro NAKA, Files 12829 and X1 1209. The goods were sold for the total net sum of $174.93 at Vancouver Auction 49, 50, and 54.

In order that these funds could be credited to the correct persons, the parties concerned were sent a list of the goods sold with the request that they identify the articles belonging to them. However, as we have been unable to obtain from the persons concerned the information required to identify ownership, the proceeds of the goods sold in the name of Gunji NAKAMACHI at Vancouver Auctions 49, 50, and 54 have been transferred in whole to Chattel Suspense.
