Sir:-

I believe that you have in your file the records of particulars concerning my car (1935 Ford Tudor).

On reading orders from the authorities for people of Japanese origin to turn in their cars to the custodian which was published in the Vancouver papers, I turned my car in at Hastings Park in the month of March of this year.

At this time I am desirous of knowing whether my car has been satisfactorily sold or whether it is still in your possession in storage. If it has been disposed of, please write me the particulars of the sale, if not I am anxious to know whether it can be sold satisfactorily or otherwise.

I trust that you will answer me at an early date.

Thanking you in advance,

I am,

Respectfully yours,

Dear Sir:

Thank you for your letter advising us that you have no property remaining in the Protected Area. In May last year you reported a 1935 Ford Coach which has been sold to Campbell Motors, and an Atlas Royalty Certificate. Please enter these two items on the "JP" forms, complete the forms by signing your name and having it witnessed and then return two forms to this office. The Ford Coach should be entered under the heading "Personal Property" on the second page of the forms, and the Atlas Royalty Certificate should be entered on page 3 of the form under the heading "Bonds and Other Securities".

Please return the completed forms to us as quickly as possible. You will then receive a report about the sale of your car.

Mr. Yoshikazu URABE,

c/o Pigeon River Timber Co.,
FORT WILLIAM, Ontario.

Dear Sir:

We have received a number of inquiries requesting further particulars in connection with recent statements covering disposition made of motor vehicles and we are, therefore, sending you this general letter of explanation.

The Custodian decided it would be in the best interests of the owners to sell Japanese motor vehicles due, not only to the rapid deterioration of paint, batteries and tires, but also because of storage and other charges which were accumulating.

Appraisals of all cars were obtained by the Custodian through competent and unbiased experts.

Deductions made for liens on said cars are self-explanatory.

The administration expenses deducted covered only insurance and storage charges incurred in each case for each car between the time said vehicle was impounded until date of sale of said vehicle.

The proceeds remaining thereafter were transferred by the Custodian to the credit of your account in this office.

Yours truly,

Specified Articles Department.
