RADIOS & CAMERAS

Department of the Secretary of State,
Custodian's Office,
912 Royal Bank Building,
Vancouver, B. C.

Dear Sir:

I have your letter of October 26th with regard to radios and cameras which are held by Detachments of the Provincial Police in this Division.

In the case of Rex vs. Shogo OMURA, an Emerson, mantel model, radio No. BN 2336128 was ordered confiscated by Magistrate Armstrong on conviction of Omura under the Defence of Canada Regulations. This mantel set is at present held at the Haney Detachment of this Force.

A Japanese, Torajiro SASAKI, Parole No. 138583, surrendered a Kodak camera No. 1A, Series 111, with leather case to the Constable in charge at Deep Cove. The camera is at present held at the Provincial Police District Headquarters, North Vancouver. In this instance the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, stated they would pick up the camera at a convenient time, but to date they have not done so.

The above appear to be the only cameras and radios held by Detachments in this Division. May I remind you, however, that such articles might be held at Detachments beyond this Division and it might be as well if you would communicate with the Commissioner, Provincial Police, Victoria, B. C.

Yours truly,

(Signed)

J. S. Shirras,
Assistant Commissioner,
Commanding "E" Division,
Provincial Police.

Dear Sir,

In answer to my letter I received on Jan 28. You have asked for the receipt that I have given my camera in your case. This I have to do some explaining - While I stayed in Lempsee I wrote to B.C. police and asked for return of my camera, and in this letter I enclose my receipt for my camera. This B.C. police name is Roy Cumming. This police Roy Cumming said he had given my receipt to another B.C. M. Police, which I don't know the name of. I would like you to get in touch with this B.C. police about my receipt and would be glad to have my camera returned in your earliest.

Thank you.

Yours truly,
T. Sasaki

Dear Sir:

I have your letter of January 28th, 1946 relative to the above named. On checking the files of this office I found the receipt referred to, dated February 27th, 1942, which I enclose herewith.

I have checked the stores here for the purpose of locating the camera, which is described as a Kodak folding type, serial no. 27465, but this camera is not in the stores and I personally have no knowledge of same.

On July 17th, 1942 Sergeant H.H. Mansell, who was then N.C.O. in charge of this District, wrote the above named stating the camera was here and that it would be handed over to the R. C. M. P. at Vancouver. I have no receipt from the R.C.M.P. for it and I have no knowledge whatever of disposal of the said camera.

Yours very truly,

Dear Sir:

This is to inform you that the camera surrendered by you has been mailed to you by insured parcel post. The cost of mailing was 21 cents postage and a packing charge of five cents, a total of 26 cents. We are returning to you 20 cents in stamps to cover the balance of the 46 cents which you sent to us. The camera was mailed on February 18, 1946.
