Attention Mr. W.J. Johnston

Dear Sir:

Re: Heisuke Yamaji
Your reference 13965.7955

I acknowledge receipt of your favour of January 19th.

Thank you kindly for your interest on my behalf. I have found it very difficult to describe the Shrines, so therefor I have enclosed a picture of them. It is not very clear but unfortunately, it is the only one I have. There are many articles (Shrines) in this picture. If you can recognize any of them, would you please forward it to me at your earliest convenience.

Frankly, I would not call them shrines but they do have a great deal of resemblance. I might add that they are used to symbolize a celebration of a Japanese Festival.

As my Cousin have already mentioned, I am very anxious to have these returned to me. I purchased them piece by piece, and I have heard that they are now unavailable.

Hoping this information will help you in any way to locate them. I would ask you to return the photograph of the Shrines which I have enclosed.

Yours very truly,

Heisuke Yamaji

Dear Sir:

Your cousin, Mrs. Yasuo MASUDA, has advised us you were the owner of a Shrine which you left in Vancouver when evacuated.

We have several unidentified Shrines in Custodian Storage and if you will forward a description of your Shrine we will endeavour to locate it.

We should receive your letter by the 31st January, 1949, as it is the intention of the Custodian to dispose of unclaimed personal property at his discretion after that date.

Yours truly,
