Dear Sir and Madam:

re: Claims

We are in receipt of your letter of the 3rd inst. regarding three claims submitted to you in our letter of the 7th ult. It is noted that you admit owing Nos. 1 and 2, and that you want us to apply the credit balance of $20.40 on the payment of No. 2. This we are not allowed to do as that would make a preferred creditor of NATEURA.

We can, however, apply the monthly remittance of $20.00, which you expect to forward to this office, on whatever account you want us to. We shall look forward to your monthly remittance and shall advise Nos. 1 and 2 of what you say.

re: $61.00 - B.C. Security Commission

We have reported to the Commission what you say in regard to this claim and have asked them to write direct to you.

Yours truly,

B. R. Dusenbury,

Dear Sirs

We have received a letter from B.C.S.C. too and yours. As we say we will pay $20.00 every month, we enclosed the $20.00 with this letter. First we want to pay $9.44 to Wakita and rest to Matsuba $10.56. Will you please send us a (doggie sign) signed signature of Mr. Wakita and Matsuba as we pay every month. As we think through Matsuba we will start paying $1.00 per B.C.S.C.

As you say we have a credit balance of $20.97 you could not pay to Matsuba could you send the sum of money to us or pay to B.C.S.C. We will wait for your letter for this.

Dear Sir:

We thank you for yours of the 7th of August, 1944 enclosing $20.00. As requested therein we have paid Sajiro WAKITA'S claim of $9.44. The balance of $10.56 has been paid into Kamejira MATSUBA'S account as requested by you. We are enclosing our Official Receipt No. 9813 for the $20.00. This is sufficient proof that you have paid these amounts to the respective parties.

In addition we have paid to MATSUBA the credit of $20.47 which Mrs. UEDE had with the Custodian, as authorized in your letter of the 3rd of July, 1944, and signed by Mrs. UEDE. We were enabled to do this on further advice received from the E. C. Security Commission subsequent to our writing you on the 5th of July, 1944. The above reduces MATSUBA'S claim at this date to $88.97, and your monthly remittance of $20.00 will be placed to his credit until such time as the claim has been paid off.

We trust that you will forward these monthly remittances regularly.

Yours truly,

A. McAlister,
