Dear Sir:

Your request that we send you your assets remaining at this office has been received from the Department of Labour.

Attached hereto please find cheque in the amount of $25.31 representing the balance to your credit at this office. We also take this opportunity of informing you as to our administration of your affairs by this Department.

When registering with this office you stated you were the owner of no real property, and no administration was therefore required along these lines.

Personal Property

You registered no chattels with the Custodian and your file reveals none except for a request received from your wife, through the Department of Labour, to ship a baby's bed to you from Pitt Meadows. No further reference is made to this article and we presume it was shipped by their Department.

A B.C. Electric Security Deposit of $2.51 was paid in to this office and credited to your account.

You declare no investments with this office but upon receiving interest on shares from the Pacific Co-operative Union, this matter was referred to you and upon receiving the 2 shares you held, they were redeemed and per value of $20.00 was credited to your account, together with $2.80 interest on same. The above constituted your full equity in this Co-operative Union.

Life Insurance

When registering with this office you declared yourself to be the holder of a Sun Life Insurance Policy, but this policy was not brought under control by the Custodian.

Financial Statement

Attached hereto you will find an itemized statement of your account at this office and the cheque attached is in full of the remaining balance as shown.

It would appear that the Custodian has accounted for
