Re: Metropolitan Life Policy
No. 82485907

On May 4th we wrote advising that the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company had sent a cheque to this office for $96.90 payable to yourself and Mitsyo Takemura to cover the Cash Surrender Value of the above numbered policy. We also advised that the money would be held here pending completion and return of registration forms from you.

These forms have been received but on same you do not give any information as to your life insurance and we still have no means of knowing that the above numbered policy covered on your life.

We also have received a letter from the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company dated May 11th requesting that the policy in question, viz: Metropolitan Life Policy 82485907, be sent to their office.

Before releasing the money mentioned above to you, it will be necessary to send this policy here for identification purposes and also so that it may then be sent to the Metropolitan Life as required.

Policy No. 82485907

Attention Mr. Arthur S. Bourinot

In answer to your request of May 11th, I wish to advise that we have not or have we ever had the above numbered policy in our possession. We took for granted that all necessary requirements such as return of the policy had been fulfilled by the policyholder prior to the payment of Cash Surrender Value, which incidentally we are still holding for credit of the above named.

In order to assist we are writing to your policyholder today, asking him to send the policy here. I might also mention that on May 4th we wrote and advised him that we had received cheque from your Company for $96.90.

Yours very truly,

S.M. Gibson,
