GENERAL SUMMARY

File No. 14388

Katsujiro MINAMIDE,
Deceased.

Reg. No. 03416

Katsujiro MINAMIDE was killed in an accident at Bralorne, B. C. on August 9, 1945. He is survived by his widow, Toshijie, file #1077; one son, Takatsu, five years old, and one daughter, Takako, nine years old.

The deceased, in his Custodian declaration, stated that he owned a building situated on the property of the Pacific Coast Cannery at Steveston. Mrs. Minamide operated a Confectionary Store in this building. Katsujiro Minamide also declared a supplementary list of personal effects, store merchandise and fixtures. These goods were also declared by Mrs. Minamide and were handled on her file.

On November 23, 1943, Katsujiro Minamide sent in a Custodian Release requesting shipment of a trunk marked with his name and left in the Minamide Confectionary Store. This could not be found among the goods removed from the Store to the warehouse and it was assumed that it was under too many other articles to be located. However, after many requests, over the period of a year, the chattels in the warehouse were sorted and the trunk was not found.

The only asset of the deceased which appears to have been handled on this file is a B. C. Electric refund of security deposit for light in the amount of $2.46 which was credited to the account of Katsujiro Minamide in this office. This small balance is, today, being transferred to the account of the widow.

No claims appear on this file.

This summary is certified to be in accordance with information on file.

NOTE: The building mentioned above was built on property belonging to B. C. Packers at the risk of the builders. A letter from the B. C. Packers on file #1077 indicates that the building referred to was demolished.

Dear Sirs:

We are in receipt of your letter of July 1st. All your goods found stored at the Minamide Confectionery Store were moved to a warehouse for safe keeping. If you require any, kindly make your wants known through the B. C. Security Commission.

With reference to your store built on the property belonging to the Pacific Coast Cannery, kindly let us have the following information: Did you pay ground rent? Did you have a lease or a written agreement?

All information you can give us will help us in looking after your interests.

Yours truly,

Geo. Peters,

Mrs. Katsujiro MINAMIDE,
Registration No. 03719,
Midway, B.C.

Dear Madam:

Re: Katsujiro MINAMIDE, Deceased.

Upon reviewing the file of your late husband, we find that we have to his credit in this office the sum of $2.46. This credit was derived from a B.C. Electric refund of security deposit for light. We are today transferring this small credit balance to your account and the account of Katsujiro Minamide is now closed.

This office is not aware of any other assets which might have belonged to your husband other than those declared by you and dealt with on your file and reported to you from time to time.

Yours truly,

A. G. McArthur,
Office of the Custodian.
