RE: Tokutaro TERAMURA

Chattels

The effects declared on this file are also declared on File 5177 (Kinuyo TERAMURA) and most of them sold along with Hatsum NISHITATA'S belongings (File 5224-6366), found at 118 Johnston Rd.

I do not see however that 4 linoleum carpets, mantle clock, parlor couch, and kitchen utensils are accounted for. The first named item was supposed to be stored in an upstairs room in a carton?

Will you please check on this.

Re: Tokutaro TERAMURA
Reg. 03478

This file can now be closed in so far as chattels are concerned. Tokutaro TERAMURA'S J. P. form dated January 16th, 1945 declared furniture etc. stored at 118 Johnson Road. These effects however, were also declared in a general way by his wife, File #5177 and an inventory appears on that file. The chattel liquidation is also dealt with on File #5177.

Mrs. Tokutaro (Kimye) TERAMURA,
Reg. No. 02975,
Sanden, B. C.

Dear Madam:

From time to time since 1942 this office has written to you in connection with your declaration of chattels but in no instance did we receive a reply. Under the circumstances we are assuming that the few things identified as yours and found stored with those of your sister, Mrs. Jiro NISHIHATA, at 118 Johnson Road, Surrey, were the only effects left by you. These were a bedroom suite, baby's cot, wringer and 2 jars which were sold at public auction, realizing the net sum of $57.30 which was credited to your account.

We note too, that your husband, Tokutaro TERAMURA declared a list of personal effects similar to those declared by you, although, he only made his declaration in 1945.

We have on file an inventory of effects belonging to Mrs. Jiro NISHIHATA, this was signed by you on her behalf and we note that both of you had such things as linoleum and cartons of dishes. Therefore, when the effects recovered from 118 Johnson Road were sold it was impossible to identify them and you should make a mutual agreement with Mr. Jiro NISHIHATA, to whose account the sales proceeds were credited, in regards to goods sold that were yours.

The heater you left at 477 Powell Street remained unsold and was discarded. We were unable to find the bureau you declared as being at this address.

Yours truly,

W. J. Iverson,
Protection Dept.
