TREASURY DEPT. CLAIM $ 200

Dear Sir:

Re: ENDO, Keiji. No. 05816

Please note that the above has been repatriated to Japan. At the time of repatriation, the following transactions took place:

Cash turned in - - - - - $ Nil

Draft Issued - - - - - $ 200.00

It will be seen that this Japanese is indebted to the Department on account of repatriation in the amount of $200.00. Therefore should you receive further funds on this account such funds should be turned into this office. It will be applied first to recoup the expenditure made and, second, if there is any surplus such surplus will be remitted to Japan for the account of the Japanese in question.

Yours truly,

PERSONAL PROPERTY SUMMARY

File No. 14619

December 28th, 1945

Re: Mr. Keiji ENDO
Reg.No. 05816.

Chattels:

No chattels were declared by the above Japanese person on his JP form dated June 15, 1942. However, it is revealed on file that a few chattels belonging to this Evacuee were left with Shigeru Sasaki's chattels at 1758 West 7th Avenue, Vancouver, and that all chattels from this address were removed to Willard's Auction Room where they were sold in Vancouver Auction No. 501 on July 13, 1944. As we were unable to separate Endo's items from Sasaki's we sent a list of the chattels to Endo asking him to check the items belonging to him and return the list to us that we might credit his account accordingly. Mr. Endo checked the list and returned it to us with his letter of August 11th, 1944, and we in turn credited his account with $7.47, being the amount received for his items as shown on the Auction Sheet on file under date of July 13, 1944.

The above amount of $7.47 is being held to the credit of Keiji Endo's account. (This amount remitted to Mr. Endo on January 14/46.)

- CHATTELS -

Respecting your queries on file 1402, I have endeavored to answer these as will be seen by the various notes I have made.

Respecting your two queries as to the chattels belonging to Evacuees other than Endo, I do not think that at this late stage there is anything further that we need do regarding this. No names of other Evacuees beyond Endo's were actually made, and in Sasaki's letter of August 8, 1944 he definitely stated on the copy of the list of chattels we sent him that the items checked with a tick belonged to Endo and that the rest of the chattels belonged to him. It will be recalled that there were a number of items abandoned.

I trust in the circumstances you will agree to the forwarding of the final letter dated March 16th, 1946, as Sasaki appears to have accepted the position as regards chattels, is aware of what his credit balance consists, and has requested that these funds be forwarded to him.

Dear Sir:

There is standing to your credit in our books the sum of $7.47, being the net proceeds derived from the sale of chattels about which you have been previously written.

As your file reveals that there is nothing else for which we have to account, we enclose our cheque for the above amount and are closing your file and account.

Re: Catalogue Number 366
1755 West 7th Avenue
Owner: Shigeru SASAKI
Tenant: Mr. A. B. Clapp
Purchaser: Mr. Markotich

Please read and pass out for mailing my letter of today's date.

The effects on these premises seem to consist of the following.

Furniture to be used by the tenant. These are listed as per inventory on file, enclosed with Agreement of May 2nd, 1942. I notice there are two copies, one of which could be removed from the file for checking purposes. Additionally, there are some beds and boxes in the upstairs bedroom as per our letter of November 16th, 1942.

There are also some items belonging to Keiji Endo, presumably file 14619, though this shows no effects declared. From letter of November 16th referred to above and November 20th, it appears that his belongings are a bit separate in the basement and consist of a box of carpenter tools, a single bed, and three cupboards containing effects, table and stool.

Finally, it appears there are also some things in the basement belonging to other Japanese and you will doubtless do your best to separate these.
