Dear Sir: -

I acknowledge receipt of your letter of 11th instant, File No 14586, in regards to the completion of "J. P." registration forms.

However, I am sorry to mention, but when I left Vancouver on April 1941, and at that time, I vested all my assets as well as all my personal belongings to the rights of my wife.

It was not until the latter part of September, that she evacuated to the present housing project in Pop Off, Slokan B.C. I have no knowledge of what has been left behind vested in your custody.

Therefore, if you remail these forms to my wife in Slokan, B.C., I am sure she could supply you with better and correct information.

Yours truly,
 J. Sujibayashi
