GENERAL SUMMARY

File No. 14913 KAISAKU SUZUKI, Deceased Reg. No. 01850

Kaisaku SUZUKI died in Vancouver, B. C. on February 13, 1942, prior to evacuation. He, therefore, made no declaration to the Custodian and nothing is known of his assets.

A Rogers-Majestic Radio was surrendered to the R.C.M.P. on his behalf by K. Suzuki, 526 Alexander Street and was later sold at Vancouver Radio Auction for a net sum of $5.32.

As no record could be found of any living relative of the deceased, the small balance at credit, $5.32, was turned over to Samuel A. Moore, Official Administrator, Vancouver, B. C.

The file reveals no claims against the deceased.

This summary is certified to be in accordance with information on file.

GENERAL SUMMARY

File No. 14913 November 12, 1946.

Re: Kaisaku SUZUKI #01850 (Deceased)

According to the sheet of Information from R.C.M.P. this man died on February 13, 1942. He did not sign a declaration to the Custodian. He was not evacuated.

The R.C.M.P. reported that the radio, listed under RCMP #569, was surrendered on behalf of K. SUZUKI, J.R.01850, 526 Alexander Street, Vancouver, on March 11, 1942 (approximately a month after the death of Kaisaku SUZUKI). The former address of the deceased was523½ Powell Street. The premises at 526 Alexander Street were owned by Mrs. Koto SUZUKI, File No. 12771, who may possibly be a relative of the deceased. The radio has been sold by the Custodian for the net sum of $5.32, which has been credited to the account of Kaisaku SUZUKI. This sum forms the total assets of the estate according to Custodian records.

Information on file shows no parents, wife or children of the deceased.

This file reveals no liabilities.

This summary is certified to be in accordance with information on file.

Dear Sir:

Re: Kaisaku SUZUKI, Police Registration No. 01850, Deceased.

It has been reported to this office by the Department of Labour that the above named Japanese male person formerly lived at 523½ Powell Street, Vancouver and died on the 13th day of February 1942. He was reported to have been a retired Japanese bath maker. He was not evacuated from the Protected Area of British Columbia and his assets therefore did not come under the jurisdiction of the Custodian.

The R.C.M.P. however, reported that a radio was surrendered to the Police under the name of "K. Suzuki", Reg. No. 01850, on March 11, 1942 by S. Sasaki concerning whom we have no further information. Our records indicate a Mrs. Koto Suzuki who lived at 526 Alexander Street, but upon being questioned she states that Mr. Kaisaku Suzuki was not a relative. The radio had no cabinet and was appraised at $2.50 while in the custody of the Police. It was turned over to the Custodian and sold under the Government policy of liquidation, for the net sum of $5.32. This sum forms the total assets of this estate according to Custodian records.

Information on file indicates no parents, wife, or children of the deceased. No claims have been filed against this man. The Police report indicates that he was born on November 20, 1888.

This office desires to close out this account and we enclose herewith Custodian cheque in the above amount and would be glad to have your acknowledgment.

Yours truly,

A. G. McArthur,
Office of the Custodian.

Dear Sir:

Attention: Mr. A. G. McArthur

Reply Attention: Mr. A. H. Hall.

Thank you for your letter of December 3rd in which you enclosed your cheque No. 3433, renumbered 5435, for $5.32.

I am holding this cheque as I have been unable to locate the death registration of the above named deceased. You state in your letter that he died on February 13th, 1942. Did he die at Vancouver? There is a Tsunakichi Sasuga registered as having died on February 13th, 1942 as a result of an accident at the Pacific Shingle Company, Indian River. His address was given as 120 8th Avenue, Haney, B. C. The Department of Labour, Japanese Division, advise me that Sasuga's number was 07581 and that he is not the same person as Suzuki.

Before I can accept your cheque I must have definite information that Suzuki is dead. Can you tell me where he died and what undertaker looked after the funeral? Was the deceased employed at the time of his death? Did he have any Bank account or other assets?

Any information you can give me will be appreciated.

Yours very truly,

Samuel A. Moore

Dear Sir: Attention: Mr. A. H. Hall.

Re: Estate of Kaisaku SUZUKI, Deceased.
Our File No. 14913.

Upon receipt of your letter of December 20, relative to the above, we inquired further of the Department of Labour regarding the place of death and other particulars but have been informed that, beyond a verbal report to the R. C. M. P. on February 13, 1942, that this man was dead, no further information is obtainable from that source. It is presumed that, since the man lived at 523½ Powell Street, Vancouver, and was not evacuated from the Protected Area, he died in Vancouver.

With regard to his employment, the R. C. M. P. report to this office indicates that this man was born on November 20, 1888, and was a retired Japanese bath maker. We have no information regarding a Bank Account or other assets as he died before our office was established and he therefore did not sign a declaration to the Custodian.

Yours very truly,

A. G. McArthur,
Office of the Custodian.

Your File No. 14913
Reply Attention: Mr. A. H. Hall.

I made a search in the Vital Statistics Department in Victoria to ascertain the date of death of the above named deceased and have received a death certificate which shows Kaisaki Suzuki died at St. Paul's Hospital on October 31, 1941. He was buried by the Bell Funeral Home, funeral expenses being paid by Mr. H. S. Watanabe of 905 Georgia, also a Japanese.

Could you kindly give me the present address of the above mentioned Watanabe in order that I may enquire as to what assets the deceased left.

Enclosed herein you will find my Special Receipt No. 79045 for your cheque of $5.32 which you forwarded me.

Attention: Mr. A.H. Hall.

Dear Sir:

Re: Estate of Kaisaku SUZUKI, Deceased.

We have to acknowledge your letter of January 3rd and believe that the H.S. Watanabe referred to is Shosaku Watanabe, Reg. No. 07961, aged about sixty years, who is reported by the R.C.M.P. to have formerly lived at 905 E. Georgia Street, Vancouver.

We are advised by the Department of Labour that this man's present address is Fingal Hostel, Fingal, Ontario. This man at one time signed for repatriation to Japan but is a naturalized British subject and has apparently changed his mind.

Yours truly,

A. G. McArthur,
Office of the Custodian.
