RE: Toshimoto WATANABE, Reg.No. 01834

CHATELS:

The above, who made his declaration to the Custodian on August 19th, 1943, and was evacuated on February 23/42, declared the following goods:

Kitchenware

Garden tools

An old trunk containing carpenter's tools,

Bed, bed spring and mattress.

These articles were shipped to him by the Department of Labour on March 3rd, 1944, as per Custodian Release on file.

Subsequently a few articles were identified under his name when all chattels were removed from this address, and these were sold at auction as per auction sales sheets on file for the net sum of $5.82. This is his entire credit balance with this office.

The file reveals that the above owned no specified articles.

No property interests other than those mentioned above are found on this file.

The above summary is certified to be in accordance with the information on file.

Dear Sir:

Your file has been reviewed and it is noted that in your declaration to the Custodian on August 19th, 1943, you stated that you were the owner of kitchenware, garden tools, trunk of carpenter's tools, bed, spring and mattress. It is noted that these articles were shipped to you on March 3rd, 1944.

When all chattels at 134 West 9th Ave., Vancouver, were removed to auction, a few additional articles were identified under your name, and these articles were sold at auction for the net sum of $1.82, which amount has been placed to the credit of your account.

It would appear that we have accounted for all property of every kind left by you in the protected area which vested in the Custodian, and in order that you may confirm this, we enclose a stamped addressed envelope for your convenience in replying.

Yours truly,
