GENERAL SUMMARY

File No. 14917

Kiyochiro YAMAOKA, Deceased.

Reg. No. 01886

Kiyochiro Yamacka died in Toronto, Ontario, on September 14, 1943. He is survived by his widow, Mariko, file #14877, and one minor son, Richard Hiro, now five years old. His father, Seitaro, file #10783, and his mother, Hatsu, file 10655, are also still living.

The deceased declared no assets to the Custodian but it was learned from the Manufacturer's Life Insurance Company that he was insured under their policy No. 744859. On July 27, 1943, the sum of $2.08 was received from the Insurance Company, being dividend on the policy. This sum was remitted to the widow on May 3, 1947.

Death benefits under the policy were held on deposit for the widow and payments have been made to her by the Company from time to time with the approval of this office.

No claims have been filed against the deceased.

This summary is certified to be in accordance with information on file.

Gentlemen:

Re: Policy #744,859 - Kiyohiro
David K. Yamaoka

This Insured is now living in Toronto, 170 Oakmount Road. There is a dividend of $2.08 due on this policy, and although he is living in Toronto, we thought it best to ask you whether or not you have any objection to our paying this dividend to the Insured.

We might say that according to our records, this man was born in Japan. In 1938 he was living in Vancouver and we do not know just when he took up residence in Toronto. We would be pleased to have your advice in this matter as soon as possible.

Yours very truly,

A. S. McCloskey
