Mr. Kanshiro OHASHI,
Registration No. 02299,
c/o Frank Rabusic,
Raymond, Alberta.

Dear Sir:-

You will recall that on September 18th, ¹⁹⁴³ you mailed us your registration declaring barber shop fixtures, living room fixtures and furniture, and kitchen utensils, bed room suite, etc. etc. These were all said to be left at 874 W. 6th Avenue.

On investigation we find that these premises were boarded up at the time of evacuation of the Japanese and it was sometime before they were inhabited. We regret to report that investigation shows no effects whatsoever therein.

It occurs to us that you may have given us the wrong address in which case we will be glad to make further investigations on receipt of advice from you. If, however, this is not the case, you will appreciate that it is very difficult for us to take any protective measures for property, the existence of which we did not know until a year and a half after your evacuation.

Yours truly,

H. F. Green

Mr. Kanshiro OHASHI,
Reg. No. 02299,
P. O. Box 247,
Raymond, Alta.

Dear Sir:-

Thank you for yours of September 9th. You make a reference to your having had previous correspondence with us and in particular to your receiving a letter from this office regarding your belongings less than a year and a half after your evacuation. We regret, however, that our files show no trace of such correspondence. It is possible that this has been misfiled and if you will give us further information or send us copies of the correspondence in question, we will be glad to follow this further. You also ask how our investigators gained access to a room which was locked and the key held by you as well as having the windows boarded. We, of course, frequently find it necessary to break into locked rooms in order to establish and move to auction the contents thereof.

Without further information, we are afraid that there will be nothing further that we can do as our records indicate quite clearly that nothing could be found on the premises after the evacuation of the occupants.

Yours truly,

H. F. Green
