Yours 29th ult asking about progress of shipment of the set of Encyclopaedia from 715 West 7th Avenue, Vancouver:

As per circular G-534, shipments of this nature have been discontinued. It is likely the Custodian will sell the books.
Another reason for not shipping, as you know, is the expectation that Sandon will be closed. When NAKANO is permanently located, he could take up again the matter of shipment.

In the meantime, I am instructing the Treasury to refund the $5.00 deposit.

Dear Sir:-

Re: NAKANO (Infant) Dec'd.
Father: NAKANO Yasaburo, #03728 56735.

File 15079.

We wish to make claim for recovery of the sum of $20.00 from the accounts of the parents of the above mentioned deceased infant. This covers funeral expenses, which amount was paid by the Commission.

Please advise as to whether there are sufficient funds available to take care of these accounts, also if there is a relative of the deceased, with sufficient assets, who would have legal responsibility for the above expense.

For your information, this infant died at the Slocan Community Hospital, New Denver, B. C., on November 24, 1944.

MEMORANDUM

To: Mr. Wright.

From: A. G. Hartman.

Re: Miss (Mrs. Yasaburo) NAKANO.
Ref. No. 07226, Deceased.

The above Japanese person died on November 24th, 1944 at Sloan Community Hospital, New Denver. She died intestate as far as we know, her only assets being a credit with the Custodian of $14.66 being proceeds from the sale of a radio, and an unopened folding Kodak appraised at $14.00.

The S. C. Security Commission has submitted a claim in the sum of $80.00 for funeral expenses. There are surviving the husband and at least three infant children. As far as the husband's file is concerned he appears to have no assets with the exception of a set of Encyclopaedia stored in the Fairview Buddhist Temple basement and a cash credit of $21.07 with the Custodian. Against this are filed two claims, one from the S. C. Electric for $1.91 and the other for $23.00 for burial of a deceased infant who died at New Denver on November 24, 1944.

Would you recommend selling the Kodak and applying the available cash on the funeral debt without Administration of the Estate? While up to the present no definite rule has been set down as to disposition of cameras, Mr. Shears is agreeable to selling this one.

Re: Miss (Mrs. Yashuro) SAKANO, Reg. No. 03728, Deceased, and Yashuro SAKANO, Reg. No. 06135.

I note that Mrs. Sakano, Deceased, owned a Kodak, which, with Mr. Shum's approval, may now be sold. The proceeds up to the sum of $45.34 may be paid to the S. C. Security Commission to apply on their $50.00 funeral claim.

I note also that Yashuro Sakano has a set of Encyclopedia which apparently still remains in the Fairview Buddhist Temple basement at 715 N. 7th Avenue. It might be advisable to have this sold at this time in order that the father might be in a position to clear off his indebtedness in full. It was suggested by Mrs. Crosby of the S. C. Security Commission that owing to the scant assets of this man they would not press their claim for funeral expenses, but as far as the $50.00 for Miss Sakano is concerned we will either apply her small estate on the bill for her funeral, or we will have to have it administered. The reasonable procedure would appear to be to pay the burial costs. In the meantime, the assets of both may be liquidated and Sakano's money will be liable for payment of the child's burial and any balance due of his wife's burial and the S. C. Electric. Any remission of debt by the Commission as far as these obligations to them are concerned will of course be accepted by us.

Thank you for your letter of May 25th and your agreement to cancel your claims for funeral expenses for the infant son of the above and his mother.

We are ready to remit the balance of funds to the surviving father but should first like him to have a look and see if he can find the R. C. M. MR. JOHNSTON:

According to information on file Misa (Mrs. Yassburo) NAKANO died on November 24/44.

Assets of the deceased consisted of 1 Marconi Radio and 1 Kodak Camera, which were sold at a total net price of $49.33.

B. C. Security Commission filed claim of $80.00 against this Estate covering funeral expenses of Mrs. NAKANO, and claims of $20.00 by the Commission covering funeral expenses of NAKANO infant, and $1.91 filed by the B. C. Electric Railway Company, were filed against Mr. & Mrs. NAKANO.

The claim of the B. C. Electric Railway Company has been paid, and in view of the small credit balance in the accounts of the above named, the Commission withdrew their claims of $80.00 and $20.00 for funeral expenses.

In view of the fact that balances of the accounts of the deceased and her husband have been forwarded to Yasaburo NAKANO, it would appear that the matter of the Estate herein has been dealt with.
