Re: Mr. & Mrs. Kenichi YANO

The husband, Kenichi Yano, has now (January 24th, 1944) registered with us. His declaration is different from that of his wife but not markedly so. Mr. Brown reports on the wife's file that all effects of value have been shipped to the owners and that the balance are not worth putting in storage as they are of no value whatsoever. The writer has seen No. 1 Japanese town and is of the opinion that nothing further need be done on either of these files insofar as personal property is concerned.
