The B. C. Security Commission filed a claim for $80.00 on June 29, 1944, on account of funeral expenses for Mrs. Ayako Moriyan (deceased). As the Custodian had no funds belonging to Mrs. Ayako Moriyan, the Department of Labour advised this office on July 17, 1944 that they would assume the funeral expenses.

Upon being advised on July 13, 1946, that Mrs. Moriyan's effects had been sold and the sum of $16.68 credited to her account, and as there was a credit balance of $5.38 in Tsuneki Moriyan's account, the Department of Labour notified the Custodian by telephone that they wished to collect these amounts on their claim.

Dear Sir:

re: Mrs. Ayako MORIYAMA, Reg. No. 08634
(Deceased June 7th, 1944)

We are in receipt of your letter of the 26th inst. making claim for recovery of the sum of $60.00 from the estate of the above deceased to cover the cost of funeral expenses paid by the Commission. This has been lodged in her file and that of her husband, and will receive appropriate attention.

At the time of filing the registration form, dated May 4th, 1942, she declared as having ten war savings certificates of $5.00 each in her possession, and also that she had some household effects stored. No check of these effects has been made and the quantity and quality of same is unknown.

The husband, Tsuneki MORIYAMA, Reg. No. 08633, has not filed any declaration with the Custodian, although he has been written to a number of times in that regard. He is represented as a millhand.

Yours truly,

B. R. Dusenbury,

Dear Sir:

FILE NO. 15241

May I be permitted to enquire into what has happened to my deceased wife's possessions. Are they still vested in your hands or have they been disposed of or sold already? These belongings were left at Fraser Mills, New Westminster. As my family will be leaving for Japan in a very short time, will you be kind enough to look into the above-mentioned property? If the property has been sold already, I prefer very much if you will send me the money realized together with the sum of $5.31 which is the refund of 1% Stage Deduction.

Thanking you and awaiting your reply, I remain,

Very truly yours,

Tsuneki Moriyama
