Dear Sir:

We wish to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 16th ultimo regarding Canada Mio Company Limited share certificates.

Our records show 400 shares in the name of Harumatsu YADA, but it would appear from your letter that these shares have been transferred to you by your father, and if you will please forward these certificates to this office, when distribution is made the funds will be sent to you.

Yours truly,

Office of the Custodian.

Dear Sir:

Final distribution to shareholders of the Canada Mico Company Limited has been made at $.508708 per share, and your father's share of $244.18 has been placed to his credit at this office. The certificates which you forwarded to this office were in your father's name and had not been transferred to you, therefore, it will be necessary for you to have your father write to this office, authorising us to transfer the funds to you.

Yours truly,

Office of the Custodian.

Dear Sir:

Re Your File No. 15248

I have received your letter of July 18th concerning the final distribution to shareholders of the Canada Mio Company Limited.

Although the certificates which were forwarded to your office were in my father's name, they were purchased from my father by myself in 1932.

My father having died in 1944, I am unable to comply with your request for an authorization for the transfer of the funds from his account.

Yours truly,

K. Yada
