GENERAL SUMMARY

File: 15272

June 18, 1949

Re: Fusako Ruth NAGATA #07933

Minor daughter of Shichitaro Nagata, File II.159. Examined July 2, 1942.

On January 5, 1944 Fusako Nagata signed a J - "No Property" card.

However, in the Canadian Bank of Commerce there was on deposit the sum of $16,977.93 in the account of Fusako Nagata.

According to Letter of May 2, 1944, on this file, this amount represented funds of the following companies:

Queen Charlotte Timber Holding Co.Ltd.	- $13,590.82
Sidney Inlet Mining Co.Ltd.	3,387.11
	16,977.93 & Int. of $322.15
	Total: $17,299.08

In 1941 sums amounting to $13,590.82 had been withdrawn from this account by the Nagata family. On April 26, 1944, the Custodian authorized Miss Fusako Nagata to issue cheque for $250.00 in favour of her father from this account. This made a total of $1,725.00 which the Nagata family had received from this account. Cheque of $17,299.08 signed by Fusako Nagata released the funds in this account to the Custodian - see May 23, 1944. Shichitaro Nagata had filed claim against the Queen Charlotte Timber Holding Co.Ltd. for $5,880.00. Upon his signing a Release, the sum of $5,880.00 less $1,725.00 - a total of $4,155.00 - was deposited to the credit of a joint account in his name and that of his daughter Fusako. These funds were later remitted to Shichitaro Nagata and his daughter Fusako.

No funds remain in Custodian Trust Account to the credit of Fusako Nagata.

File reveals no liabilities of Fusako Nagata.

Attention: Mr. F. Field,

Gentlemen: Re: Fusako RUIT NAGATA.

Following our interview this morning, we wired Miss Fusako
Ruit Nagata as follows:

"This is your authority to issue cheque two hundred and fifty dollars for your father on account in your name Bank of Commerce Vancouver letter follows"

The writer also attended the Head Office of the Canadian Bank of Commerce at noon and left a copy of the telegram with Mr.
Wheeler, Savings Department Manager. We explained that it had been decided to release this sum and that you would forward a letter to the Bank tomorrow authorizing payment of the cheque when it arrives.
We will also write Mr. Nagata as to the disposition of his claim upon receipt of your further report and copy of Mr. Lawson's letter of yesterday.

Will you be good enough to give this matter your attention.

Yours truly,

Dear Sirs

Re: Queen Charlotte Timber Holding Co. Ltd.

The Custodian has given careful consideration to your claim against the above named company for extra remuneration for 10½ years between 1931 and 1941 amounting to $5880.00 and in view of certain recommendations now received supported by evidence that you devoted a considerable part of your time to the affairs of the company, it has been decided to allow the claim subject to your compliance with the conditions hereinafter set forth.

At the present time there is a bank account standing in the name of Miss Ruth Fusako Nagata totalling $16,977.93. According to our information this represents $13,990.82 owned by Queen Charlotte Timber Holding Co. Ltd. and $3387.11 owned by Sydney Inlet Mining Co. Ltd. This money was placed in the account by transfer of the funds of Queen Charlotte Timber Holding Co. Ltd. and there has been withdrawn from this account for the personal use of your family the sum of $1480.00.

We forwarded a telegram to your daughter, Ruth Fusako Nagata, under date of 26th ult. as follows:

'THIS IS YOUR AUTHORITY TO ISSUE CHEQUE TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY DOLLARS FAVOR YOUR FATHER ON ACCOUNT IN YOUR NAME BANK OF COMMERCE VANCOUVER LETTER FOLLOWS.'

and assuming that this has been acted upon, the sum would be reduced to $16727.93.

Enclosed herewith you will find cheque in favor of the Custodian for the balance of the account, which must be signed by your daughter, Ruth Fusako Nagata. When this cheque is received and credited to the Queen Charlotte Timber Holding Co. Ltd., funds will be credited to your account in this office to settle the above claim, namely $5880.00, less the above withdrawals referred to of $1480.00 as well as the present withdrawal of $250.00, leaving a credit balance in your account in this office of $4150.00. Arrangements will then be made to transfer the proper amount to the credit of the Sydney Inlet Mining Co. Ltd. It will also be necessary for you to execute a Release in favor of Queen Charlotte Timber Holding Co. Ltd. This is being prepared and will be forwarded to you shortly.

The funds, when credited to your account, will be used for maintenance for yourself and family and to this end a cheque for $200.00 will be forwarded monthly until the sum at credit is exhausted.

Your early attention to this matter will be appreciated.

Dear Sir,

I am now in receipt of yours, May 2nd, 3rd., and 11th and I regret to have not replied at an earlier date but your mail to us was delayed somewhat.

I have enclosed within the cheque to the sum of $17,233.71 with interest $65.37 total $17,299.08, signed by Miss Fusako Ruth Nagata in favour of the Custodian in accordance with your request, and the Release Form of my claim from the Queen Charlotte Timber Holding Company Limited, in duplicate, upon the condition that I shall be credited, upon my withdrawal, with the settlement of my claim to the sum of $5880.00 less personal expenses for the amount of $1480 and $250. as stated in your letter of May 2nd.

In reference to the expenditure of $1480, although I have some knowledge to the sum of $1300 of this amount, I am not able to recollect, at present, any use of the balance of $180 and would greatly appreciate your sending me at your convenience the date of cheque and to whom the cheque was issued.

Yours truly,
