Re: Honichi ITO

Reference to the wife's file 5321, shows that the heater declared by this Japanese is still stored at Cumberland under Mr. Brown's care. It is thought to have very little value.

A letter of enquiry has been addressed to the other two persons who are holding effects for him.

Dear Sir
I have this camera and have had three or four letters from him asking me to send it to him. I refused to answer him as I have nothing to do with the gaps, have lost too many people at their hands.

Mrs Eto gave me this said camera rather than turn it over to the police. I told her to burn it if she didn't want it and she said you can have it, there was nothing said of giving it back.

If you want the darn thing you can have it, but I will never send it to them.

If you know these people as I know them you wouldn't want them to have a camera in any part of the empire. Please notify me.

Yours Truly

Miss Kathleen Yee,

out to you

January 13, 1944.

Department of the Secretary of State,
Office of the Custodian,
Vancouver B.C.

Dear H.F.Green,

Prior to her marriage and subsequent evacuation Edith Ito had left a box at the Oriental Home for Girls. There were many girls there then and she placed it under my attention. Unfortunately I had left this institution three months after her evacuation and had not been kept in very good contact. And to top this the Home had been moved to much smaller building. As you well understand, during transit many of the belongings of the girls who were there were misplaced not to mention of the personal effects of any girl who were not there.

However I shall do my best to help her locate her belongings, although I fear very much that it may be lost. Hoping you will understand these unfortunate occurrence, I returned your form herewith.

Yours truly,

Kathleen Yee

Dear Madam:-

Re: Mr. & Mrs. Hanichi ITO

This is just to thank you for yours of January 13th. It does seem rather unfortunate that an Institution would lose effects of this nature. We note you will do what you can and perhaps you will advise us if anything can be achieved by our writing to the Oriental Home for Girls.

Yours truly,

Mr. and Mrs. Hanachi ITO,
Reg. Nos.: 10044 & 10045,
c/o Mr. W. A. Laycraft,
Strathmore, Alta.

Dear Sir and Madam:-

Mrs. Ito did not declare any belongings to the Custodian but Mr. Ito did declare a good black camera in the care of Mr. Surgenov and a black box of personal effects in the care of Miss Kathleen Yee. We have written to both these people.

Mr. Surgenov says that you have written to him several times for his camera and he has refused to answer. He says that Mrs. Ito gave it to him rather than turn it over to the Police and that nothing was said about returning it.

He is prepared, however, to deliver it to us on request.

Mrs. Yee reports that your box was left at the Oriental Home for Girls. She left this Institution after Mrs. Ito's evacuation. Meanwhile, the Home has been moved to a much smaller building. She believes that your box may have been misplaced but is making further investigations.

Yours truly,

H. F. Green
