

Powell Street Interview

Union Fish, Nabata Taxi & bottled milk

Tadao Wakabayashi points to a corner where there used to be several Japanese Canadian owned businesses. There was a fish market called Union Fish, Nabata Taxi, and a confectionary store that sold milk on the side.

TADAO WAKABAYASHI

Used to be a fish meat market here. They called themselves Union Fish, and then next to that was Number Two Transfer. And then Nabata Taxi, and then Fukushima, the corner was a store. He had a confectionary store and then selling milk on the side. That's on the corner store.

INTERVIEWERS

Was the milk in those bottles and they bring it in every day?

TADAO WAKABAYASHI

Everyday, yeah.